

Fire Protection Training

Procedures Handbook 4300

WILDLAND SAFETY UNIFORM

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

	POINTS
1. Safety helmet may be removed during mop-up and patrol if fire is out.
a. True b. False	10
2. Gloves and goggles should be with each firefighter even when not in use.
a. True b. False	10
3. A wet bandanna may be used instead of the nomex hood.
a. True b. False	10
4. Safety glasses are an acceptable substitute for goggles.
a. True b. False	10
5. The uniform work pants are an integral part of the wildland safety uniform.
a. True b. False	10
6. Occasionally, you should wash the safety helmet's headband and chinstrap with a warm detergent soap solution followed by as thorough rinsing in cold water.
a. True b. False	5
7. The use and wearing of the wildland safety uniform is optional.
a. True b. False	10

Fire Protection Training

Procedures Handbook 4300

WILDLAND SAFETY UNIFORM

	POINTS
8. The lens of safety goggles should be cleaned with clear water if dirty or replaced if damaged. a. True b. False	5
9. You cannot be burned if you wear nomex protective clothing because it is fire proof. a. True b. False	10
10. The wildland safety uniform and equipment should be kept together and ready for immediate use. a. True b. False	5
11. It is important to recognize that fire resistive clothing in and of itself offers no insulation against radiant heat. a. True b. False	10
12. By wearing fire resistive clothing during physical fitness and other training exercises the body will be weakened and not adjust to heat stress developed when actually fighting fire. a. True b. False	5

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED: _____

FINAL SCORE: _____

Fire Protection Training

Procedures Handbook 4300

WILDLAND SAFETY UNIFORM

KEY

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

		POINTS
1.	Safety helmet may be removed during mop-up and patrol if fire is out.
a.	True
B.	FALSE	10
2.	Gloves and goggles should be with each firefighter even when not in use.
a.	TRUE
b.	False	10
3.	A wet bandanna may be used instead of the nomex hood.
a.	True
B.	FALSE	10
4.	Safety glasses are an acceptable substitute for goggles.
a.	True
B.	FALSE	10
5.	The uniform work pants are an integral part of the wildland safety uniform.
a.	TRUE
b.	False	10
6.	Occasionally, you should wash the safety helmet's headband and chinstrap with a warm detergent soap solution followed by as thorough rinsing in cold water.
a.	TRUE
b.	False	5
7.	The use and wearing of the wildland safety uniform is optional.
a.	True
B.	FALSE	10

Fire Protection Training

Procedures Handbook 4300

WILDLAND SAFETY UNIFORM

KEY

	POINTS
8. The lens of safety goggles should be cleaned with clear water if dirty or replaced if damaged. a. TRUE b. False	5
9. You cannot be burned if you wear nomex protective clothing because it is fire proof. a. True B. FALSE	10
10. The wildland safety uniform and equipment should be kept together and ready for immediate use. a. TRUE b. False	5
11. It is important to recognize that fire resistive clothing in and by itself offers no insulation against radiant heat. a. TRUE b. False	10
12. 12. By wearing fire resistive clothing during physical fitness and other training exercises the body will be weakened and not adjust to heat stress developed when actually fighting fire. a. True B. FALSE	5

POINTS POSSIBLE:

100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE: