

Written Quiz

	POINTS
1. What two documents have been developed to constantly remind us of the wildland fire safety rules?	20
2. When avoiding a wildland fire entrapment situation which is more important; physical strength or stamina?	10
3. Name two pieces of equipment (not clothing) every wildland firefighter should carry?	10
4. What is a safety island?	10
5. What is an escape route?	10
6. Name three naturally occurring barriers which are relatively safe from fire entrapment?	10
7. Name three constructed barriers which are relatively safe from fire entrapment?	10
8. When "running through fire" is necessary to escape an oncoming fire, hand tools should be discarded.	10
True
False
9. When "running through fire" the firefighter should/should not assume a crouching position where flame lengths or flame height is low.	10

Written Quiz

AVOIDING FIRE ENTRAPMENT

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE:

4306.6

Page 2

Written Quiz - Key

POINTS

1. What two documents have been developed to constantly remind us of the wildland fire safety rules? 20

"THE TEN STANDARD FIREFIGHTING ORDERS" and "THE THIRTEEN SITUATIONS THAT SHOUT WATCH OUT"

2. When avoiding a wildland fire entrapment situation which is more important; physical strength or stamina? 10

STAMINA

3. Name two pieces of equipment (not clothing) every wildland firefighter should carry? 10

FIRE SHELTER CANTEEN

4. What is a safety island? 10

A PREDESIGNATED AREA WHERE A CREW WILL ASSEMBLE IF THREATENED BY FIRE AND ESCAPE IS NOT POSSIBLE OR ADVISABLE

5. What is an escape route? 10

A PREDESIGNATED ROUTE A CREW WILL TAKE TO AVOID THE THREAT OF FIRE OVERRUNNING THEM

6. Name three naturally occurring barriers which are relatively safe from fire entrapment? 10

BODIES OF WATER, ROCK OUTCROPPINGS, OLD BURNS, GRAZED AREAS

7. Name three constructed barriers which are relatively safe from fire entrapment? 10

ROADS, PARKING LOTS, SAFETY ISLANDS, QUARRIES, SWIMMING POOLS

Written Quiz - Key

POINTS

8. When “running through fire” is necessary to escape an oncoming fire, hand tools should be discarded. 10

True

FALSE

9. When “running through fire” the firefighter should/should not assume a crouching position where flame lengths or flame height is low. 10

SHOULD NOT

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE: