

Written Quiz

	POINTS
1. The fire resistive blanket provides protection primarily from _____ heat.	20
2. Fire blankets were not designed to provide for non-compliance with proven _____ practices or policies.	20
3. In a fire overrun situation, the firefighter should not leave the safety of a deployed fire blanket or curtain until _____.	20
4. While under fire blankets, you should take _____ breaths.	20
5. Seat belts should remain _____.	20

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE:

Written Quiz - Key

	POINTS
1. The fire resistive blanket provides protection primarily from RADIANT heat.	20
2. Fire blankets were not designed to provide for non-compliance with proven SAFETY practices or policies.	20
3. In a fire overrun situation, the firefighter should not leave the safety of a deployed fire blanket or curtain until TOLD TO DO SO BY A SUPERVISOR .	20
4. While under fire blankets, you should take SHALLOW breaths.	20
5. Seat belts should remain FASTENED .	20

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE: