

Written Quiz

POINTS

1. The back-up person is ultimately responsible for backing accidents. 10
True False
2. The back-up person should be on the side of the vehicle which presents the most _____. 10
3. If the back-up person cannot see the operator's eyes in the _____, the operator may not see the back-up person. 10
4. There are _____ standard backing hand signals. 10
5. The back-up person should be a minimum of _____ feet from the rear of the engine. 10
6. A back-up person is not required to be used for which types of state vehicles? 20

7. Who determines the general route or path to be taken when a vehicle is to be backed up? 10

8. What two actions must a back-up person take when an emergency stop is necessary? 20

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE:

Written Quiz - Key

- | | POINTS |
|--|----------------------|
| 1. The back-up person is ultimately responsible for backing accidents. True FALSE | 20 |
| 2. The back-up person should be on the side of the vehicle which presents the most HAZARDS OR OBSTACLES . | 10 |
| 3. If the back-up person cannot see the operator's eyes in the MIRROR , the operator may not see the back-up person. | 10 |
| 4. There are FOUR standard backing hand signals. | 10 |
| 5. The back-up person should be a minimum of 15 feet from the rear of the engine. | 10 |
| 6. A back-up person is not required to be used for which types of state vehicles? SEDANS PICK-UPS | 10 |
| 7. Who determines the general route or path to be taken when a vehicle is to be backed up? OPERATOR | 10 |
| 8. What two actions must a back-up person take when an emergency stop is necessary? GIVE STOP HAND SIGNAL SHOUT STOP | 20 |

POINTS POSSIBLE: 100

POINTS DEDUCTED:

FINAL SCORE: