

A pressure relief valve is designed to relieve excessive pressure within the pump discharge. Shown is the pressure relief valve controller.

Schematic of water flow when pump discharge pressure is lower than allowed by pilot valve.

Schematic of water flow when pump discharge pressure is higher than allowed by pilot valve setting.

